

Your proposed rule changes go in the wrong direction. We need more owners, not fewer. We need open, fair competition not more monopoly. You would be doing the owners of the airlines a great favor if you made greater choice, not lesser, available. At the very least provide a greater opportunity for public discussion before taking this drastic action.